PE's Service Improved By New Cars

All-Steel Coaches Supplement Old Rolling Stock On Direct Schedules

Interurban railroad travel between Sierra Madre and Los Angeles has been virtually revolutionized insofar as direct service is concerned, during recent months.

As a result of the painstaking efforts of both the Pacific Electric Railway Co. and the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce transportation committee, the "1100" all-steel type cars are in regular use on the direct service in the morning and evening, enabling commuters and all travelers during those hours to really enjoy the ride to and from the big city.

These cars are equipped with automatic heaters for use during the cool weather, and are so fitted as to prevent water leaking through the roof during the rainy season. The impossible or unpleasant task is presented to the traveler on boarding the car. The easy riding qualities provide a distinct contrast when compared with the old cars, commuters declare.

For many months the railway company and the committee have been steadily working toward gratifying Sierra Madre's desire for up-to-date transportation. This has made necessary many rearrangements on other lines, done with as little trial and error as was possible under the circumstances, and the committee strongly urges the traveling public of this community to avail itself of these vastly improved facilities.

All the efforts of the company and the committee are now being directed toward effecting a change in equipment for the "shuttle" service between San Marino and Sierra Madre, which will compare favorably with the direct service.

Operetta For St. Rita's Graduates

Capacity Audience Enjoys Splendid Program Marking School's Close

A charming program was given by the pupils of St. Rita's school Tuesday evening in honor of the eight boys and girls who graduated yesterday. They are Ralph Huppert, William Rhodes, John J. Smurda, Marjorie Bradley, Priscilla Goedeau, Lucille Hoevel, Mary Rita Schiltz and Dora Verla.

The first and second grades entertained with their well known rhythm orchestra and also sang and danced a number entitled "The Dairy Maids."

"Little Housekeepers," a playlet by the third and fourth grades was enthusiastically received. Chorus were sung by the grammar grades and during the program Marjorie Bradley and Jack Colligan gave musical selections.

Highlight of the program was an operetta, "Cinderella," presented by the grammar grades. Special lighting effects and colorful costumes, combined with the natural talent of the boys and girls resulted in a splendid performance.

The story of the play was taken from the well known fairy tale. Children participating in the operetta were Cinderella, Florence Osterhout, Step-mother, Lucille Hoevel, Prince, John J. Smurda, Cupid, Francis Yehle, Belinda, Sheila Colbert, Henrietta, Patty Davidson and Godmother, Priscilla Goedeau.

Fairies were portrayed by Lois Kennedy, Jacinta Kinney, Virginia Behrens, Carmen Barela, Betty J. Sivert, Ernestine Sanchez, Josephine Fraccaroli and Irene Cronin.

Lords and ladies in the ballroom scene were William Rhodes, Ralph Huppert, Edward Odette, Eugene Colbert, David Duran, Joseph Mullender, Jerome Thill, Jack Colligan, Dora Verla, Mary Rita Schiltz, Mary Louise Gre-villo, Patty Davidson, Sheila Colbert, Lucille Hoevel, Rita Bauman and Anna Belle Bradley.

New Mail Schedule Brings Earlier Delivery Here

A summer schedule of mail delivery from the Sierra Madre post office went into effect this week. The morning receipt of first class mail is on the first car from Los Angeles, arriving at 6:36 a.m. The balance of the morning mail comes on the regular car as before.

This new arrangement permits earlier delivery and is giving much satisfaction. Boxholders can get their first class morning mail by 7:30 a.m.

All the mail boxes of the city have shiny new green coats, Emile Smith having completed his contract to rejuvenate them.

Canyon Plunge, Now Glistening White, Opens Tomorrow

Sierra Madre's old swimmin' hole—the Canyon Park plunge—will be opened tomorrow morning, continuing until late in the fall.

This year's opening was delayed due to repairs necessitated by the March storm, during which huge boulders rolled down the stream bed and crushed big holes in the bottom. It took weeks to patch these with fresh concrete and clear out the debris that accumulated during the storm. A fresh coat of white paint was applied earlier in the week and water was turned into the plunge Wednesday.

Presentation Of Play Ends School Year

Big Audience Roars Its Approval Of "Pinochio" By 6-A Graduates

Graduation parties are over, the plays incident to the end of a school year have been presented and young Sierra Madre is packing its books and preparing for a strenuous vacation today for "school is out."

A series of parties for the graduating class of the grammar school that began last Thursday ended yesterday after "Pinochio," favorite folk story of the graduates, was presented to a large and enthusiastic audience in the school auditorium Wednesday evening.

The play was put on in a blaze of color and rhythmic music as a reward for the outstanding class spirit which its members had shown during the year. Sponsors of the play were Miss Mary Pfahler, music teacher; Miss Florence Lusted, art teacher; and Mrs. Mary Wheeler, the 6A teacher. Madame Marion DeBeaulieu directed.

The story of "Pinochio," the little wooden child who experienced so many thrilling adventures before he was restored to his normal self, is universally loved.

Vivid color schemes were carried out in the scenery, reminiscent of an Italian light opera. Twenty tuneful songs were presented by children in fanciful costume.

Myrel Mae Weese was splendid in the title role. Her costume of pinkish orange satin glistened under the vari-colored lights. Every child taking part in the play was a credit to the school and the audience's response to the presentation gave ample indication of its approval.

The graduates had a party in the music room of the school Friday afternoon, presided over by their teacher, Mrs. Mary Wheeler, assisted by girls of the class.

The 6B and 5A grades, which contain next year's graduates, were given a party in the garden of the new Highland avenue home of Mrs. Gladys Albright. The children brought covered dishes of hot food and the hostess prepared a huge bowl of salad. The 25 young guests presented her with two beautiful rose bushes for the new garden.

New Woman's Club Heads Assume Offices Wednesday

New officers of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club will be installed by Mrs. Oscar S. Elvrum, vice-president, Los Angeles District, California Federation of Woman's Clubs, next Wednesday at a morning meeting at the clubhouse.

Special music will be arranged by Mrs. A. D. Cain to follow the board meeting at 10 o'clock. After a cafeteria luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. Pearl Virginia Berger will entertain members with a reading.

Bankers Of Citrus Belt In Annual Meeting Here

H. V. Adams of the Security First National Bank speaker's bureau was principal speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the Citrus Belt Bankers' association Friday evening at the Wistaria Vine Gardens. His subject was "Does the World Owe Me a Living?"

The Wistaria Players, under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Jones, presented a comedy skit entitled, "She's a Beauty." Included in the cast were Irene Lloyd, Jane Gingerich and Irvin Ingram.

A special guest at the meeting was Mr. Shorten of Bedford, England, a visitor in this country who talked informally on English banking conditions compared with those in America.

About forty-five persons attended the session, which was presided over by Mr. W. S. Cahoon, of the First National Bank of Pomona. Mr. Cahoon is the president of the Citrus Belt Bankers' association.

City Placed In Valley League

Nearby Towns Represented—Legionnaires Coaches Now—Boys Ready To Go

Sierra Madre will be one of at least six—probably eight—cities having teams in the San Gabriel Valley Baseball League. Five cities have definitely signed up and their teams are organized. Eligibility of half a dozen other teams will be determined by the condition of their diamonds, seating capacity of their stands, lighting facilities, etc. Those sure to go are Sierra Madre, Arcadia, Monrovia, Temple City and Covina.

Sierra Madre will be represented by the Merchants team of last year, with a little new blood that is expected to step up its strength both in the field and at the plate. Most of the players of the Merchants and former All-Stars have been playing as members of a commercial team in Glendale and will be in top form for the first game.

It's a bit pathetic—when you look back—that there will be no Legion team here this year. Most of the players believe their ball playing years are over, admitting their age. But not all. Minor Harkness, crack batsman of the old Legion outfit says he's just gotta keep up and will at least play occasionally. Waverly Pratt, fast working flinger who held the in-and-out strike-out record in the Legion League with his fast ball, wants to let go in favor of his promising son Lorne. He will take a big interest in the Kiwanis Boys' League and coach one of the teams. Thorne Mathis, Colin Hill, Charley Taylor and other standbys of the old Legion team will coach other teams—and probably get more excited over the competition than when they played themselves.

Youngsters are always in condition, of course, but the matter of team play has been engaging the rival Kiwanis City League teams this week. They've been out practicing like major leaguers in a training camp this week in preparation for opening of their season which could not begin until the school term ended.

St. Rita's will be the team favored to win this season because of last year's championship, the boys predict, adding that the Scouts and Congos will be right on the tail of St. Rita's. The Legion team so far is the dark horse of the league. Last year they had the habit of winning at very inopportune times against the other teams.

A 12-inch ball will be used this year instead of the old 13 inch ball. The new ball is expected to make the games much more exciting and closely played.

There will be games three nights a week. The schedule is being prepared.

Businessmen Plan A Get-Together Dinner Meeting

A get-together dinner meeting of Sierra Madre's business and professional people is scheduled for next Thursday evening, June 23, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Arrangements for the event were made at a meeting of the Chamber directors Tuesday morning when a committee consisting of John S. Billheimer, W. S. Hull, P. R. Penn, Rudolph R. Hartman, Bill Burr and Secretary Kinnear of the Chamber was appointed to make necessary arrangements.

It is to be a very informal affair, the sole object being to discuss projects for the good of the community and encourage a closer relationship of the business and professional people.

A committee to urge construction of a government postoffice building was appointed by President R. C. Lewis. It consists of Mr. Burr, Mr. Billheimer and Harold Roberts.

Mr. Roberts was elected a member of the board to take the place vacated by Paul Carter upon his election to the city council.

A resolution was adopted expressing the Chamber's opposition to the proposed Garrison act, which would permit municipalities to contract bond obligations by a majority instead of a two-thirds vote of the people.

Famed Photographs To Be Exhibited

An exhibition of photographic studies featuring California landscape by R. F. McGraw of North Hermosa avenue, will be presented by the Sierra Madre Arts Guild at A. J. Dewey's Adobe Studio, 35 East Montecito avenue, June 26th to July 3. Tea will be served Sunday, June 26 from 2:30 to 7 p.m.

The exhibition will be open daily after 4 p.m. This is the first of a series of exhibitions to be given during the summer by the Arts Guild.

The McGraw pictures, pronounced extraordinarily good, have just returned from a series of exhibitions in Middle West cities.

Budget For Coming Fiscal Year Is In The Making

The municipal budget of Sierra Madre for the 1938-39 tax year is in the making. It must be completed before the end of this fiscal year June 30. All city departments have been asked to prepare detailed statements of the probable requirements for the year beginning July 1. Most of them will be submitted next week and the city council will immediately begin a series of budget sessions.

Increased His Business By News Ads

"You will probably be interested to know that consistent advertising of our greasing service in the columns of The Sierra Madre News during recent weeks has increased this feature of our business more than 100 per cent and very greatly helped our general business," said a letter from J. Milton Steis, manager of the Standard Service Station in which was enclosed a remittance for his May advertising.

Impossible Feats At Chess Meet

Morphy Carnival Program Calls For Plays That Seem Unreasonable

A blindfold exhibition of four boards of chess played simultaneously will be given by Philip Wolston, a 17-year-old player from Los Angeles at the ninth annual Morphy Day chess carnival which will be held in the Sierra Madre city park Saturday, June 25 from noon to midnight.

An outstanding exhibition on this year's program is the playing of 30 boards simultaneously by R. W. Banner, late of Zurich and Paris. Dr. M. Scholtz, retired physician of Arcadia, will play 15 boards simultaneously.

All chess players and their families are urged to take the day off and attend, taking their own lunches. These annual meetings are planned chiefly for players from small cities and those without club advantages, though all players are cordially invited.

Mrs. J. N. Hawks will be in charge of guest registration. L. H. Heath, local chairman, has named A. V. Taylor, James Hawks and William Edwards as members of his committee.

This year the city did not contribute towards the expenses of this meeting and local chess players and other citizens are asked to make small contributions toward the sum needed. Contributions can be made to L. H. Heath, 706 Woodland Drive, William Edwards, 307 Mariposa avenue, or at Rikemans Gift Shop.

Pay As You Play Plan Effective Now On Tennis Courts

Tennis fans in Sierra Madre noticed an improvement in the lighting system on the Park courts Monday evening, additional lights having been installed, one to each court.

Light meter service, or the "pay-as-you-play" plan was put into use at that time. A meter on each court records the time consumed and a charge of 25c for 30 minutes is made. No coins are permitted to be dropped after 9:30 in the evening, which allows the courts to be vacated at 10:00.

The city council has asked the contractors who resurfaced the tennis courts to have a new surface laid, the present one having been found unsatisfactory by players.

PASADENA WANTS NEIGHBORS TO HELP PAY FOR ITS SUPPLY OF METROPOLITAN WATER

A conference looking to settlement of Pasadena's suit to curtail the use of water in this and other San Gabriel Valley communities will be held in the office of the Crown City's legal department this morning. It will be attended by the city attorneys of cities made defendants in Pasadena's suit. Called by the Pasadena city attorney for Monday afternoon it was postponed until today because several attorneys had cases in court and could not be present.

All the attorneys invited regard the meeting as an effort by Pasadena to compromise the suit on a more or less "friendly" basis. It is expected that several proposals will be made, including one that Pasadena will agree to practically cease pumping from the underground Raymond basin when its supply from the Metropolitan Water district is available, though not relinquishing its prior right to a lion's share of the underground supply, and conditioned upon the defendant cities assuming, in one form or another, of a part of Pasadena's huge financial obligation to the Metropolitan.

Any and all other compromise proposals the Pasadena attorneys and engineers have prepared are said to impose the same provision for spreading the cost of Pasadena's Metropolitan supply over the neighboring communities.

Reports continue that Sierra Madre and probably Arcadia will eventually be dropped as defendants in the suit on their contention that their supply, particularly that of Sierra Madre, is wholly derived from a basin separate and apart from the Raymond basin from which Pasadena pumps. It is considered unlikely, however, that this elimination will come until after lengthy discussion of any proposition submitted by Pasadena to the defendant group.

McGroarty To Seek State Office

Surprise Petitions Circulated—G.O.P. Field Cleared For Hinshaw

Though Congressman John Steven McGroarty seems to have definitely determined not to become a candidate for re-election to Congress, he evidently has no thought of retiring from public life. Quite unexpectedly petitions in his interest as a candidate for Secretary of State of California appeared in Altadena, La Canada and other areas on Wednesday. Those circulating them announced they were acting under orders from the Congressman himself and that he would be a candidate to succeed the veteran Frank Jordan, incumbent, in both the Republican and Democratic primary elections in August. McGroarty has made no public announcement of his candidacy or issued any statement respecting it.

Circulation of these petitions would seem to remove any lingering doubt about McGroarty's determination to quit Washington, and clarify the political atmosphere in the 11th district.

The atmosphere was further clarified this week by elimination of Councilman Jim Wilson of Los Angeles as a Republican candidate in the district, leaving a clear field insofar as the Republican nomination is concerned, for Carl Hinshaw of Pasadena, who was the Republican candidate two years ago and who several weeks ago announced he would seek the nomination this year. Wilson issued a statement Wednesday announcing that he would not be a candidate.

Famous American To Speak Here Sunday

Charles Gibbs Adams, one of America's best known landscape architects, will be the guest speaker at a supper program to be held at the Wistaria Vine at 6:30 Sunday evening.

Mr. Adams' reputation as a lecturer and writer is so high that many who are interested in trees, landscaping and flowers will deem it a rare privilege to hear him. He has just returned from a tour of the country and this will be the first opportunity to hear of his experiences. The program will be followed by an informal reception honoring Mr. Adams. His topic will be, in view of recent trip, "Civic Gardens and Their Value to the Communities." For reservations call Sierra Madre 2763.

PTA's Fantasy Gets Fine Reception From Big Crowd

"Sara Crewe and The White Peacock," the P.T.A. play given Saturday evening by Mme. de Beaulieu and her talented youngsters delighted a large audience at the school auditorium. The stage was transferred into a girls boarding school where the first act took place, with Lorraine Melvin and Marilyn Pian taking the leading parts and creating many laughs.

Six-year-old Ernestine Easterling, Frances Robertson and Marjorie Bradley placed the artistic touch upon a highly successful evening with their pianoforte selections.

The second and third acts took the leading characters through dark forests, enchanted gardens, and underground caves with many weird creatures as companions.

Eighty children played their roles, large or small, in a most creditable manner and the audience left no doubt of its appreciation of their splendid performance.

Seventy-Two Brush Fires Reported So Far This Season

At the June meeting of the Angeles Forest Protective Association in Monrovia Tuesday evening it was reported 72 brush fires already this season have burned 321 acres.

U. S. Fire Dispatcher De Lapp stated the forest service is using a fire danger rating based on humidity, moisture in shrubs, wind movement, etc. Based on this rating, preparation for fire fighting can be made before the actual breaking out of a fire.

Deputy County Fire Warden Davis reported that his organization has purchased five new fire tank trucks, one having a capacity of 2,500 gallons. These will be distributed throughout the district.

Hometowners To Shine in Rose Bowl

Local Students Prominent In Graduation Affairs at Wilson and P. J. C.

Several hundred Sierra Madreans will be among the expected 70,000 people in the Rose Bowl tonight who will witness the most colorful graduation ceremony of a long series presented there.

Future civic leaders and worthy citizens of this and many other communities to the number of 2,798 will receive diplomas as graduates of the Pasadena Junior College. Muir Technical High School (which will be known as the west campus of P. J. C. hereafter), and five junior high schools, including Wilson Junior.

Forty-five hundred students will participate in the pageant. Every resource of the area has been drawn upon to insure beauty. Headed by the famed Bulldog band of P. J. C., the various school bands and choral groups will lend much to the occasion.

Lorne Pratt, president of Wilson's 102s class, will have a part in the Bowl proceedings, giving the class pledge. Many other Sierra Madreans will appear in the band and choruses.

It has been a week of gaiety and festivity for the graduates, Sierra Madre figuring prominently in the pre-graduation activities. Lorne Pratt presided at the graduation class assembly at Wilson yesterday. Anne Sue Adwell delivered the farewell address to the student body. Stanton Irvine played a trumpet solo.

"Power," suggested by Norma Hogan, was the theme of the graduating class at the annual banquet.

Among the Wilson graduates with outstanding records in sports who received recognition, were Jack Dougherty, who went out for letters in football, track and baseball teams, and John Ashmore and Lorne Pratt, who won honors in baseball and football. Jack Dougherty and Yoshi-shisa Umekube received letters for baseball.

At parting assemblies this week regret was expressed for the leaving of many of the leaders in sports activities, including Anna Sue Adwell, who has been active in tennis and baseball, as well as Barbara Gerschler and Mary Alice Harkness, who have taken a deep interest in athletics.

Among the Sierra Madreans at Wilson receiving recognition of outstanding scholarship were Betty Seyler and Barbara Gerschler.

Wilson clubs regret the loss of their most prominent members when the diplomas are handed out tonight, Sierra Madreans among them being Shirley Shapiro, Mary Alice Harkness, Anna Sue Adwell and Betty Seyler. Among the girls, and Clay Ralvis, Bob Thomas, Lorne Pratt, Stanton Irvine, John Ashmore and Jack Dougherty. The Junior Red Cross Club expressed sorrow over the leaving of some of its leading members, including Bettie Wilson Simmons.

State May Penalize Cities For Laxity In Quarantine

Officials of Sierra Madre, Arcadia, Monrovia, Whittier, Claremont and half a dozen other cities are accused by the county health authorities of being indifferent in enforcing the State rabies quarantine by not enforcing the regulation requiring that dogs and cats shall not be permitted on the streets except on leash.

They have been notified that unless the regulations are put into effect at once and rigidly enforced, special enforcement officers will be detailed to the various municipalities and their salaries and expenses charged to the cities, as provided by State law.

Master Plan For Zoning Amended

Planning Commission Sends Maps To Council For Its Approval

City Council will begin its study of the zoning problem at its meeting next Wednesday evening when it will receive from the planning commission the master or land use plan to be used as the basis of Sierra Madre's proposed new zoning law.

As the master plan goes to the Council it carries a slight amendment to meet objections voiced at a recent hearing held to the planners by Robert McCullagh of Montecito avenue. Mr. McCullagh objected to a division of his 150 foot frontage between the industrial and multiple dwelling classifications. To meet his objection the planning commission raised the classification of his entire frontage to that of multiple dwelling.

This necessitated a change in classification of equal frontage on the north side of the street originally designated as industrial and which now becomes multiple dwelling. Apartment buildings and bungalow courts may be erected in multiple dwelling zones.

Objections of several affected property holders to restriction of the business area on West Sierra Madre Blvd. between Hermosa avenue and Lima street failed to bring immediate action by the Planning Commission. As the plan goes to the Council it prohibits business between Lima and Hermosa, zoned for business under the old ordinance.

Notices will be sent out to all property owners having frontage in the affected area, asking for written protests in approval of the plan to restrict the area before final action is taken.

On receipt of the master plan, the Council will designate a date for a hearing by it, probably on the date of the first Council meeting in July. Following the hearing the Council will probably adopt a resolution accepting the land use plan and calling upon the Planning Commission to precise it, then will begin preparation of the ordinance finally to be adopted. Adoption of the resolution will put the land use plan into effect to protect the city until the zoning ordinance is enacted.

At a lengthy meeting of the Planning Commission Monday night protests submitted at the hearing of June 7 were considered and a general plan of regulation for the various zones was discussed.

When the Planning Commission has completed its precisizing and preparation of a tentative draft of the zoning ordinance, it will hold another hearing. When the ordinance is sent back to the Council, the Council will also hold another hearing. It is estimated that 60 or 90 days will be required for preparation of the ordinance. A large map showing details of the master plan may be seen by the public at the city hall.

Ship Lantern To Hang At Lych Gate

Latest Gift Adds Romance To Grounds Of Church Of The Ascension

Now the Seven Seas will add their own touch of romance and beauty to Sierra Madre's Lych Gate. In the form of an old—very old—ship's lantern. The lantern has just been presented to the sponsors of the Lych Gate by Samuel Mercer, long-time resident of Sierra Madre but a native of Massachusetts. Incidentally, the Mercers were originally French; and became American—this family did—in pre-Revolutionary days. Now, about that lantern.

After rounding Horn and Cape many times and shining on the waters of all the queer ports of the world ever visited by Yankee sail, the lantern—now Sierra Madre's—became the property of the famous Governor Amos of Massachusetts. He hung it from the arched entrance to his estate on Cape Cod. When the estate went the way of sub-division and a building-boom, the father of our Samuel Mercer—he was a zealot as a collector—bought the lantern for his own.

Where there were already more ship's lanterns than were really needed. So this one escaped that hanging. And Mr. Mercer, the younger, brought it with him when he came to Sierra Madre nearly 15 years ago.

The lantern, with an iron frame of a box-type, is to be refurbished by G. O. Daily of Sierra Madre Blvd., maker of the forged-iron accessories that ready adorn the celebrated "gate" of the little St. Francis park.

The acquisition fits nicely into the picture for the Ascension Church bell is a ship's bell, salvaged from a wrecked vessel on the North California coast.

COLLEGE WOMEN HAVE LAST MEETING OF THE SEASON

The College Women's Club held its windup meeting of the Season Monday afternoon on the grounds of the Herbert Holt estate in San Rafael street, Pasadena. Mrs. Raymond D. Andrews of West Sierra Madre Blvd., program chairman, presented a program of unusual merit, featuring a group of musicians and tableaux of characters from literature. A picnic luncheon was served by the hostess and her assistants. Sierra Madreans who were there included Mrs. W. S. Hull, who had Mrs. Anna Bacon, Mrs. F. H. Hartman and Mrs. C. W. Jones in her party. Mrs. E. D. Burbank had Mrs. Milford J. Thompson, Mrs. J. Earl Gossard, Mrs. H. B. Hersey, and Miss Edna Green in her group, besides a guest, Mrs. Robt. McCullagh. Mrs. Carl Greese had Mrs. Fred Griebelnow.

ALTAR SOCIETY TO HAVE LUNCHEON ON TUESDAY

The Duerchio home at the head of Acacia street will be the scene next Tuesday of the first of a series of summer luncheons to be held by St. Rita's Altar Society. For reservations call Sierra Madre 19 or 3262. Miss Effie Walch, Mrs. Mary Moore and Mrs. A. J. Wysocki will be hostesses.

THE MODERN PRISCILLAS EXCHANGE GOOD WISHES

The Modern Priscillas were entertained by Mrs. Arthur O. Pritchard of 139 West Orange Grove avenue on June 9 for the final meeting of the year at what was to have been a picnic in her beautiful grounds. The overcast sky called for a change of plans, so a buffet-lunch was served in the dining room, followed by a delightful social hour. Hearty wishes for a pleasant summer were expressed by all. Special guests included Mrs. N. B. Hutton, Mrs. Silas H. Burnham, Mrs. Carrie Halsey, Mrs. H. P. Bacon, and Mrs. Franklin W. Swift. Mrs. Milford J. Thompson was co-hostess.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR THE McANDREW FAMILY

The annual departure of Mrs. John D. McAndrew of 311 North Auburn avenue and her children, Agnes and James, for their wheat farm in North Dakota, was the incentive last Thursday for a prettily-appointed dinner-party given by Mrs. Edward De Long of 649 West Montecito avenue. Mr. McAndrew left a month ago for the farm in Grandin. They will return in the fall.

PARTY CELEBRATES TWO BIRTHDAYS—GRADUATION

A double birthday celebration is one thing; and having a son who has been graduated, is something else again. These major events will be honored next Monday evening at Wistaria Gardens, when Mrs. Alyce Anderson gives an elaborately-planned dinner honoring the birthdays of her husband, Mr. E. W. Anderson, and son, Gene Keables, and the graduation of the latter from the Upper Division of Pasadena Jr. College tonight. Blue crystal and yellow china will be used with accenting flowers. Places will be marked for the guests-of-honor, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Higley of Pasadena and their daughter, Miss Myra Higley; Mrs. J. W. Lawless and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Keables of Denver, Colo., grand parents of Mr. Keables, who are summering in Long Beach; and the hostess.

ALTAR SOCIETY TO HAVE GARDEN PARTY TUESDAY

Keen anticipation for a beautifully-arranged garden-luncheon and bridge is running high among the members of St. Rita's Altar Society, who are planning the final out-door affair of their season in the oak-studded grounds of the Victor Guercio estate in Camillo street on Tuesday, June 21 from 12:30 until evening.

No detail has been overlooked that would add to enjoyment of the afternoon. Mr. Guercio, who resides in Santa Monica, has turned the place over to the ladies, while Miss Effie D. Walch of 372 Sycamore Place, through whose home guests will enter the Guercio grounds, is also extending the courtesy of her lovely sunken garden. A rustic summerhouse, grill, numerous live oaks, and a shady pergola will add to the pleasure of the day. Rev. Father Alan Prendergast, new priest of St. Rita's, will be among the guests.

Auction, contract and 500 will be played. Non-players can enjoy luncheon. Prizes will be provided. Reservations must not be in later than Monday morning. Telephone Mrs. J. J. Wysocki at 2512, or Miss Walch at 3262.

KEITHS AND CANTORS ENJOY ANNIVERSARY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Keith of E. Sierra Madre Blvd. stole quietly away on June 9 to celebrate their 13th wedding anniversary at the Victor Hugo in Beverly Hills, but found another couple had chosen the same place in which to celebrate their 24th wedding anniversary. Ida and Eddie Cantor, were the genial hosts to a large group of screen and stage luminaries at a nearby table. Unceasing entertainment ensued throughout the evening, with much dancing by both anniversary couples. Gracie Allen's shafts of wit, Ruby Keeler's dancing, and the Cantor repartee were highlights of the evening, not to mention the agreeable presence of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Treacher (the former that perfect English butler) at a neighboring table.

TWENTY-SIX FRIENDS AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. F. H. Hartman of North Baldwin avenue wishes birthdays would happen every day—if they could all be as pleasant as her last one, June 13, when she was the honoree at a dinner given by P. H. Hartman at Brotherton's noted cafe on Foothill Blvd. Covers were laid for 26 guests, all close Sierra Madre friends. After dinner, the group repaired to the Hartman home where motion pictures of the winter trip through Florida, recently completed by Mr. and Mrs. Hartman, were shown by their son, Rudolph.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY OF JUNE DOUGHERTY

June Dougherty, sub-deb daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dougherty of 145 San Gabriel Court, celebrated her birthday June 8th, at a surprise barbecue given at a party by Mrs. Leo Dougherty and Mrs. Verna Cadman of Pasadena, at the home of the latter. Wagner's swimming pool was visited in the afternoon. Twelve schoolmates and friends from Sierra Madre and Monrovia were bidden.

STORK SHOW A DAINITY ARRANGED AFFAIR

A daintily arranged pink and blue stork shower was given by Mrs. Daniel B. Hastings of 671 West Orange Grove avenue Wednesday night honoring Mrs. J. J. Fetters of 86 Esperanza avenue and members of St. Rita's Jr. Married Women's Club.

Interest was divided between the unwrapping of be-ribboned packages and the playing of many new games. Talisman roses, and mixed flowers adorned the bridegates, upon which ice-cream roll and cake were served.

Among those present were Mrs. R. Behrens, Mrs. L. Dyche, Mrs. A. DeTemple, Mrs. L. M. Evans, Mrs. Della Field, Mrs. T. Flynn, Mrs. V. Guardia, Mrs. L. Hill, Mrs. E. Newbery, Mrs. J. Siefert, Mrs. C. Thill, Mrs. A. R. Tweedell, and Mrs. R. Udell, besides the honoree and hostess.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Butler of 729 West Alegria avenue were among the guests at the garden-party given by Drs. Karl and Helen Sweet of 259 Stedman Place, Monrovia, on Saturday, in honor of their daughter, Miss Jean Sweet, who was graduated from the Immaculate Conception School, Monrovia, last Thursday.

Geniality of the true Coumbe type issued from the lovely mountain home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Coumbe of 521 Alta Vista Drive Saturday evening when friends were entertained at a buffet-supper and "Tripoli." Present were Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Getman of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Al Simpkins of Glendale, besides the hosts.

Miss Clara Sykes of 91 W. Highland Ave. was co-hostess with Miss Clara Newman and her mother at a charming dinner party Saturday evening, preceding the presentation of "Sara Crewe and the White Peacock," at the Sierra Madre school. Guests were Mrs. Laura Cline of 429 Sturtevant Dr., Miss Lucille Sparks of Pasadena, and Mrs.

Baptisms Feature Childrens Day At Congregational

Children's day exercises were held Sunday morning at the Congregational church, with 150 young people, the entire Sunday school, present. All departments of the school participated in the program and gave demonstrations of their work. A large number of parents attended.

Five babies were baptized by Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard. They were William Robert Burr, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Burr; Charles Raymond Christman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Christman; Robert Arthur Dougherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Dougherty; Jane Adele Lange, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Lange and Nancy Lenore Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Morgan.

The Misses Anna and Margaret Starbuck, two young people of the Sunday school, were received into the church membership.

Agnes Leighton of E. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Mrs. Daniel B. Hastings of 671 W. Orange Grove Ave. will be the honor-guest on Sunday evening at a birthday dinner given by her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Lugo of 1533 W. 81st St., Los Angeles.

Father's Day will be fittingly remembered in the Lehner family on Sunday by a family gathering. Among those who will be able to visit father are Mr. and Mrs. Merrill G. Lehner of Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. Arlyn Lehner and daughter, Barbara, of Eagle Rock, and a daughter, Mrs. Ruby Chase and her son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Chase and baby.

Mrs. Silas H. Burnham of W. Orange Grove Ave. is giving a smartly-appointed luncheon today at her home, in compliment to Mrs. W. R. Chapin of Lincoln, Neb., who is also an old friend of Mrs. E. D. Burbank, who will be among the guests, and Mrs. Neil Dunn. Mrs. Burnham is a newcomer of six weeks, but is an ardent booster just like all the rest.

Mrs. Claude Allen of 61 Bonita Ave. was hostess to 35 members of the Star Social Club, auxiliary of the Eastern Star, at a hilarious bunco party last week. Mrs. Ethel Henderson was first-prize winner, and Mrs. Hortense Hill, low. Miss Muriel Tarr is president of the club.

Another pleasant affair came the way of Mrs. J. S. Billheimer of Suffolk Place last week when Mrs. W. P. Willmott of Westwood Hills gave one of the artistically-appointed luncheons for which she is famous. Effective arrangement of flowers from her garden formed an attractive background for the sheer dresses of the guests.

IOWA BOYS HERE ON GRADUATION TRIP

Douglas Klemme and two high school friends from Belmond, Ia., arrived in Sierra Madre Saturday. Celebrating graduation, they are making a six weeks tour of the southwest. In Stillwater, Oklahoma they visited Randall Klemme, a professor in the University. Since then they have seen the Grand Canyon and Boulder Dam.

While in Sierra Madre, they are visiting Mrs. Gilbert S. Bovard, aunt of Douglas Klemme.

BROILED STEAK ALWAYS DELICIOUS

The perfectly broiled, tender, juicy steak is a treat at any time for diners; and with modern methods making preparation easy, it is also a favorite meat with housewives, particularly when the weather is warm and apathy is widespread.

"In the past broiling has been considered a very quick method of cooking, but according to the newer ideas on broiling," says Inez S. Willson, home economist, "broiling is easier and produces a more satisfactory result if it is done at a slower pace." So thoroughly pre-heat the broiling oven with the regulator set at "high," and instead of placing the steak close to the flame or heating element, put it so there is a distance of at least three inches between the top of steak and source of heat. This insures that the broiling is done at a moderate temperature, and makes turning more than once unnecessary. If the distance must be less, reduce the temperature accordingly. When one side is nicely browned, season with salt and pepper, turn and finish the cooking on the second side.

The meats chosen for broiling are the tender ones. Porterhouse or T-Bone, club or Delmonico, and sirloin steaks are the usual choice for cooking by this method. Sometimes rib steaks are used. Ground meat may be shaped into cakes and broiled satisfactorily, because the long fibers of less-tender meat are cut in the grinding and the meat made tenderer.

Son Of City's Founder Writes About Interesting Back Country Folk

In an article with anecdotes of characters famous in the back-country of Angeles Forest of the early days, Arthur N. Carter, son of N. C. Carter, founder of Sierra Madre and owner of the beautiful old estate, "Carteria," tells of the "Early Days in the Chilla Country" appearing in the current issue of Trails Magazine.

The article tells of Chilla—the man, a shepherd of the early 70's, named Jose Gonzales, who after killing a bear with his hunting knife was named "chilla" or "hot stuff" by his companions, and gave the name to that area.

It was told, the article goes on that Chilla became a herder and guard for Tiburcia Vasquez and that the Chilla Flats became a hide-out and pasture for stock stolen in the San Gabriel and San Fernando Valleys. There brands were blotted out or made over and the cattle sold north or east in the mining country.

Chilla is said to have disappeared following the capture of Vasquez at the ranch of Greek George near Cahuenga and nothing seems to be known of him since.

Another pioneer mountaineer—William Sturtevant—is described in the article as "best posted man in the mountain country," and who built the Sturtevant Trail. Other old timers commented on in the article are Louis Newcomb of Sierra Madre, one of the early forest rangers, and a man who knows the mountains as he knows his hand's palm. During Newcomb's first years in Chilla as a ranger around 1898 Indians still returned to the flats to their old camping grounds on hunting trips. There were also bears in the early days. The last grizzly seen in these parts was reported killed in 1898 by Tom Lucas, also one of the rangers. Four black bears were seen there in the winter of 1908.

Local women are invited to attend these classes which meet from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Instruction by Miss Drey will be given in sewing, hooked rugs and knitting.

YOUR HOME AND MINE

BY ANNE WILSON

"Won't you come out and play" is an invitation which appeals to grown-ups as well as children. And going out to play in your own yard is a good idea for summer evenings. Why not take a look around your grounds to see what's to be done to make a part of it into a play yard.

Friends of mine have developed a clever idea for home sports. Because night time is about the only time they have an opportunity for recreation, they have chosen a stretch of level lawn and lighted it with floodlights mounted on poles, which may be raised or lowered to provide light at various heights. In this lighted area, they put down a croquet set and invite their friends in for a game. Or they carry out a ping pong table and enjoy that game in the refreshing night air.

The man of the family has made a clever bean-bag board. It is fashioned of wood in the shape of a wide-armed cross and stands about two feet high. In each end of the cross, and in the middle, holes are cut out and marked with various numbers which they count if the bag is thrown through them.

The possibilities for home sports at night are most interesting. Badminton, hand ball and horse shoes also may be played in lighted surroundings, and a level drive way suggests a shuffle board game. In installing outdoor lighting, it is preferable to have the sources about ten feet high, so that light will not shine directly into the eyes of the players.

IT'S AMAZING

★ The convenience and cleanliness of the new gas broilers are really amazing. The finer flavor of broiled foods is now attained with as much ease and speed as bringing water to a boil. ★ There is no smoke to get in the eyes or to fill the kitchen. In these new broilers, which swing out or slide out on roller bearings, fats are drained away from the heat zone. This aids in avoiding smoke. Furthermore, to be absolutely smokeless, broiling requires the type of heat which will do away with the inevitable particles of spattering grease. Gas alone, among automatic fuels, gives the necessary flame heat to consume these completely. Remember this when you think of clean cookery. For cleanliness, cook with gas. See the new ranges at dealers' or at the gas company showrooms. Ask about the very liberal terms. SOUTHERN COUNTIES GAS COMPANY

Case and Comment

By Charles B. Showalter

NEXT Sunday, July 19, has been set apart for Father's Day, when we are all supposed to put father where he belongs, on that day—and do something about it.

Dad has for so long just been taken for granted that he doubtless will feel quite self-conscious when he wakes up Sunday morning to find himself the object of so much unusual attention. But he will just grin, and take it in his stride. He is not likely to get seriously puffed up.

Father's day is a recent innovation. It may grow to exert a profound influence on our lives. Of course we have always had fathers with us. As for instance the Revolutionary fathers, and long before that—the Pilgrim fathers.

Now the Revolutionary fathers, they really did something. But the Pilgrim Fathers were not so hot—they were just running away from conditions they didn't like, and quite by accident arrived at Plymouth Rock. The Pilgrim Fathers have come in for more than their fair share of attention. We figure it would be humanly impossible for them to have begotten even a small fraction of all those who claim to be their progeny. It is true that they faced terrible hardships—a bleak climate on a lonely shore, hostile Indians, famine, pestilence, but the Pilgrim mothers had to stand all that, too. And they also had to stand the Pilgrim fathers—which was somewhat of a chore in those days, if history is not misleading.

Well, Father's Day has no special significance for these ancient gentlemen. It is the fathers we have here and now that are to be considered, and we have a tribute to a father, by one who prefers to remain anonymous, that we think worth passing along for other sons and fathers to think about:

"I regard my father the best ever, because he was my father—Big, upstanding, vigorous, he was brave as the bravest, yet gentle as a woman. By his attitude toward our diminutive mother, he taught five sons proper respect and veneration for all womanhood. He never came down from his dignity as head of the clan and autocrat of the home. With quiet firmness, yet with kindness and consideration he enforced a rigid discipline, and gave us a lasting impression of the necessity for law and order. It is the undisciplined youths who fill the ranks of crime. He scorned the mean and the low, and nurtured our faith by his exemplary life. He was a wise and understanding father and he knew boys. He never ceased to be a boy with his boys, entering with zest into our plays and our plans, sharing our reverses and our triumphs. He inspired our boundless affection, and better still, he held our respect. He was, indeed, a man among men."

We can think of no finer tribute than that, and it is one any father might be proud to deserve.

Poor Richard Said:
"As every idle word, so must we for every idle silence."

The... Watch Tower

By Perley Poore Sheehan

WE WERE speaking about the Ether—about that mysterious something that permeates and fills the universe. Fills, perhaps, infinity. Perhaps, IS infinity. He said—our Mentor said: "For example, the Ether is so responsive, so sensitive—to life, let us say; that a mere breath is enough to make it boil." And he showed us. First, the Ether—it was like a dark crystal, so still and clear; just a clear, dark emptiness; yet an emptiness which you knew, somehow, held everything. On this our Mentor breathed, just as a child might breathe on a window-pane. And we saw that crystalline stillness begin to rock and churn.

BEFORE we try to explain what this is all about let's tell you of a couple of other things that happened. He said—our Mentor did: "Also, the Ether is plastic to your thought." He told us: "Think of an object—any object; and you will see the Ether give it form and substance." Well, right off, we thought—as anyone might—of a girl we'd loved. (It's all right. It was long ago—in High School.) And we saw her—as if emerging from that dark crystal nothingness. Smiling. Interested. A little flushed. So warmly alive. (Although she'd been, as they say, "dead," oh, all of thirty years.) But our Mentor told us—well, he said that we'd have to try again.

FOR, he said, this was yet another trait or gift of the Ether: It could carry the call of one soul to another quicker than light, so that those souls were in tune with each other; and no matter how far apart they were—or believed themselves to be—in time, in space. "No," he said; "try again." And he told us we needn't worry—that the girl, she wasn't going to leave. So, we thought of a flower—of a certain rose that she—and we—had loved. In the old time. Thought of it first as a bud, still green and tight. And as we did so, we saw the bud also emerge—"materialize"—would seem to be the word. Then we thought of it as unfolding. And it did unfold—there was the half-blown rose. The very hue—a blending of brown and yellow and pink. The very scent—spicy, clean as heaven. Like the girl. You would have said that they both were of the same—shall we call it, Substance?

WE ASKED a question—of our Mentor. We're not quite sure we got it into words. There was an earthquake in our heart. Would she—could she—speak to us?—the spirit-girl? We'll not go into that. But we will say this: Hope on, all ye who have a hope. But what concerns us here—and this means you, and you, and all of us—is that it's not just a flower and it's not just a girl that is on from this dark crystal of the Ether. So our Mentor says. It's the Seven Golden Candlesticks. No less. A new heaven and a new earth. The Kingdom. At last. It's the Holy City that's emerging. And formed to your heart's clear wish at that.

PERHAPS we should explain now, before going on, that this was all in a dream. Not just a dream. One of those special dreams. To recall a little bit some lines by the Reverend Doctor Charles Gordon Ames:

*Folded within my being
A wonder to me is taught,
Too deep for curious seeing,
Or fathom of sounding thought.*

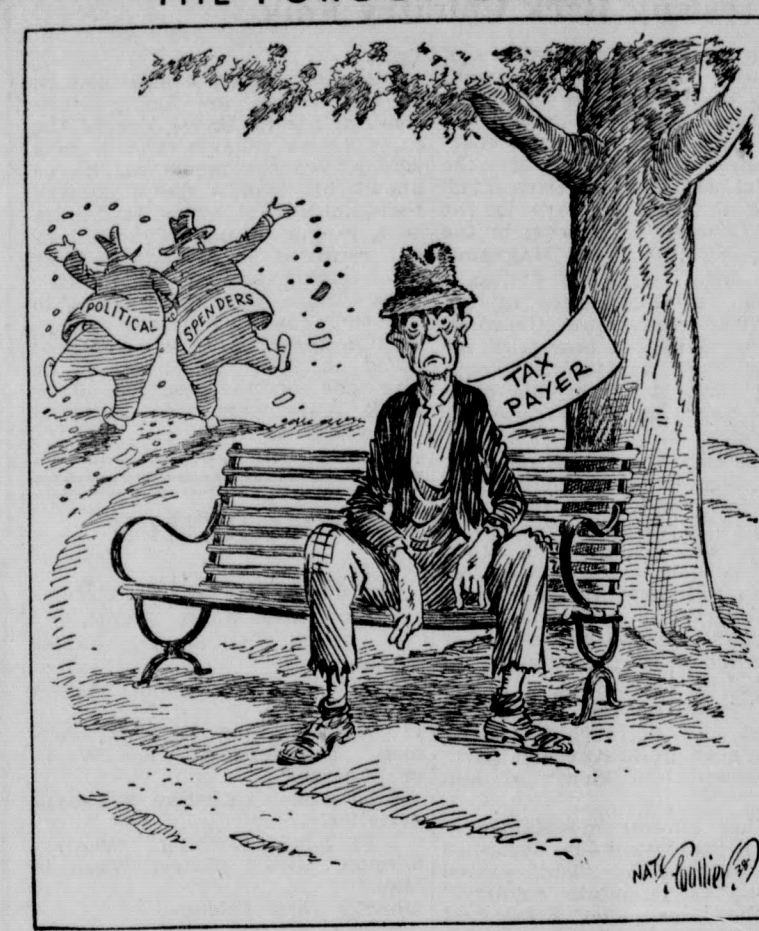

Too bad, we sometimes think, that the churches no longer go in very much for dreams. That ladder, for instance, with angels going up and down. Dreams like that. Or this one, of ours.

WHY not? With the Ether—responsive to a breath, plastic to our thought. Listen to Robert Browning—he also must have had his intimations: "All we have willed or dreamed or hoped of good shall exist. Not its semblance, but itself. No beauty, nor good, nor power whose voice has gone forth, but each survives... when Eternity affirms the conception of an hour." We remember what Lowell said about Emerson—that he looked as if his face had just been washed by God; and then what Emerson taught in all he ever said and wrote: How the universe is that fluid—that volatile.

A DREAM. And a prompting from him we've called our Mentor. Who is he, the Mentor? We don't know. We've never seen his face. When he speaks, though, we know—our Master's voice. Our own Higher Self perhaps. And if ours, then yours—everyone's. Provided—we love one another. (No need to quote the rest of that.) But when we've waked from a dream like this—when we've meditated on it—and with the eyes of our mind we watch the receding light that flickers away down some dim corridor, back into the Unknown—we do sometimes think of Cardinal Newman's lines. These we'll quote:

*Lead kindly light, amid the encircling gloom,
Lead thou me on...*

THE FORGOTTEN MAN

Some protest has been filling the air over Secretary Hull's policy of making America a sanctuary for refugees fleeing political and radical persecution in Europe. Mr. Hull's policy, it should be remembered, is in essence only a mild diplomatic slap at a certain foreign power, and in actual practice changes nothing, neither our immigration quotas nor the requirements of self-support which this country demands of each incoming alien.

Home financing in California during April by insured savings and loan association members of the Federal Home Loan Bank System totaled $4,302,019, or one-fifth of the nation's total of $62,621,000 in home mortgage loans by savings and loan associations.

California's motor vehicle registration zoomed upward to 2,484,653 in 1937, an increase of 6.7 per cent—appreciably above the national average. Those registration receipts poured a welcome $24 million into a grateful State treasury, not to mention another $46 million from the gas tax which easily outdistanced the 1936 record. Nor has the business in blocking the tides of motor travel this year. With vacationists from Bend to Bangor nosing the family car toward the open road, motor clubs expect a tourist volume equal to last year's record-breaker which brought two million out-of-state visitors into California to enrich the State by nearly $300 million.

And the lawmakers get a rap over the knuckles from Dr. Earle Hedrick, vice-president of U.C., who says: "Blame for whatever catastrophe may come, whether in scientific fields or on battle fields, must be placed not on science that creates, but on lawmakers and statesmen who misuse those creations."

How red is red tape? Red enough, judging from what happened in Pueblo, Colo., the other day, to give us the best living definition of the phrase that has come out way in some time. Two officials, E. A. Morse and Earl Dunlap, captured a fleeing suspect. Their pleasure at having performed an able job was to be further heightened. They learned the Federal government had posted a $50 reward for the capture of their man. Then they found certain papers had to be filled out before they were eligible to receive the sum of $49.71, leaving the officers 29 cents to divide between them. They were last heard muttering something about man's reward being certain only in heaven, where there is not red tape—they hope!

Expecting that Monrovia will again be overrun with bookmakers with operation of the new Hollywood Park race track, Monrovia's council is rushing through an ordinance prohibiting the transmission of bets by telegraph, teletype or telegram.

The grievances people bear usually die with them, but the world seems to learn little from that fact. Thirteen years ago Elisha Waterman, son of a multimillionaire, was disinherited by his father. For 13 years he lived in penitence. Last month, yielding to the last, his father died—cutting him off with $100. But the fates, who seem to have a very ironic sense of humor about such matters, planned it otherwise. The death of his father made the disinherited son beneficiary of a $5 million trust fund left by his great-uncle. That fund gave the outcast son controlling stock in the family fountain-pen business. The Board of Directors at once proceeded to

A LITTLE ATTENTION NOW WILL PREVENT BIGGER TAX BILLS LATER, EXPERT WARNS

BUDGET time is the time to protest high taxes—not next fall when tax bills become due and payable.

And budget time, in most California counties, is during July and August although in some sections the preliminary hearings start this month.

The warning gong is sounded early for the need for public vigilance this year is particularly great.

California, during 1937, with its terrific relief load, swollen by a continuous influx of refugees from other states—with increased pension costs, increased general government costs and increases of every conceivable nature—had a total tax bill of nearly three-quarters of a billion dollars.

The per capita tax, highest in the state's history, reached the sum of $114 for every man, woman and child, with many families contributing—directly and indirectly, to federal, state and local governments—one-third of all their earnings!

That, it would seem, is the limit beyond which there are no limits, but the demand for new governmental services and new tax funds still continues—and only aggressive, determined action can call a halt.

Farmers, home-owners, business men and common property taxpayers of all classes have urgent need this year to sit in on budget hearings of their tax levying bodies and keep strict tab on proposed expenditures. For taxpayers and the dependents of government are bound to be present, with demands for increased appropriations, and public officials who recognize the need for retrenchment will need vigorous support from those who foot the bills.

On the favorable side of the ledger, it should be noted that there is rapidly increasing evidence of a public revolt against free-handed spending and skyrocketing tax rates. But hit-or-miss protests are not enough; the protests must be made to the public officers charged with budget approval and fixing of tax rates.

Indicative of the fact that tax increases can be checked—if public support is forthcoming for the movement—is the recent action of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors in adopting a resolution declaring that "No additions will be made to the budget by the Board of Supervisors except those by demand of the taxpayers at public hearings."

In announcing its economy program, the board called attention to the fact that "budget requests of most of the county departments for salary and wages, maintenance and operation, and capital outlays are higher than last year." To that it appended: "Taxpayers of Los Angeles County are already too heavily burdened and any increase in the tax rate would be detrimental and, in some cases, might confiscate the property of small taxpayers."

Boards of supervisors which have the courage to take a stand against additional increases certainly are entitled to militant support from the taxpayers in their districts. And California agriculture should lead the way in demanding relief for taxpayers, rather than increased burdens.

And the time to act is budget time—not tax paying time, when the damage has been done!

further centralization of authority at Washington. "I hear it urged periodically that education be supported by a national treasury. But education so supported is going to be controlled by the bureau that gives it the money for its continuance," says the doctor.

California is regarded as little short of heaven to a lot of the down and outers from the mid-west dust bowl and other areas according to Harold Pomeroy of the State Relief Administration. "To many of our migrants California is a land of plenty," he said, "considering that the state relief averages start with Mississippi at $13.18 a month—$31.42 less than in California."

Coyotes really have something to howl about in Los Angeles county now, for more than 650 of them have been eradicated since the countywide campaign against them started last November when a reward of $1 a pelt was placed on their heads.

Knox was a Senator, he was inept. To overcome this, the Secretary's salary was reduced by law to the figure where it stood when Knox entered the Senate. This was construed as being within Constitutional regulation.

However, a member of Congress may be appointed to military or naval office but acceptance of such commission automatically vacates his seat in Congress.

In this way, our Constitution provides a safeguard against corruption and intrigue.

Still Another Old Age Pension Plan

Congressman Scott of Long Beach has a new old age pension scheme before Congress. His bill introduced last week will lay over until the next session. It is a short amendment to the present social security law which provides old age pensions for those who are employed by taking a percentage from each pay check, to be matched by a similar assessment on the employer or company.

Scott's amendment would do away with the taxing of pay checks and would provide a pension of $50 a month for all 60 years old and over who are not financially able to care for themselves. Those receiving monthly stipend would have to cease working for pay so as to give the work to younger people. It would also require foreigners to be resident citizens of this country for 20 years before they would be eligible for pension.

"Savings Made
Owning a Home
Easy for Us"

A TRUE STORY

In this happy husband's actual words... "For the past ten years I've saved part of my pay check. Sometimes it wasn't very much. But it was always something... I never missed a month. These savings plus dividends are now enough to build the home I've always wanted."

"I'm happy about it, and I guess a little proud, too. So is the wife. It was her idea, really, that I start an account."

It has been said, "A man is worth only what he can save." Surely, those of you who dream of a future filled with happiness are anxious for dreams to come true. They can, and soon, too, if you save here now... and earn a really worthwhile return.

Eagerly Awaited New Volumes Arrive At Sierra Madre's Public Library; Demand For Fiction Grows

Many of the eagerly awaited late books have arrived at the Sierra Madre public library and are now available, including "Lost Atlantis" by James Bramwell, and Einstein's "Evolution of Physics."

Zane Grey's "Raider's of Spanish Peaks" is among the much sought fiction volumes. Others are "Free Land," Rose Wilder Lane; "I Lost My Girl," Jane Allen; "Handsome Road," Gene Bristow; "World Goes Smashed," Samuel Hopkins Adams; "Four Marys,"

Registration Of Voters Started

Citizens Being Qualified For Biggest Political Free-For-All In History

Registration of voters for the biggest campaign Los Angeles county has ever known is under way. Voters are being registered at the city hall here for the August primary and the state-wide November election. Later district canvassers will go out. Citizens who have or will have moved between the date of last election and the approaching elections will have to register again. So will those who failed to vote, or who wish to change party affiliations.

Registration for the primary closes July 21 and for the November election September 29. Los Angeles will have the biggest field of candidates that ever appeared on its ballots. In addition to candidates for U. S. Senator, Governor, Lieutenant Governor, State Controller, Secretary of State, Attorney General, Superintendent of Public Instruction and a member of the State Board of Equalization from this district, Los Angeles county voters will select candidates for supervisorial district; 21 superior court judges, a sheriff, county assessor, members of Congress from all districts, members of the Assembly from all districts and a State Senator.

Sierra Madreans will join in the nomination and election of candidates for justice of the peace of Monrovia township, being no longer a part of Pasadena township, in the politics of which it has heretofore participated.

Sometimes escaping the notice of many voters until they reach the polls, there are 1470 members of the county central committees to be chosen, 210 from each of the following parties, or seven for each party from each assembly district: Democratic, Republican, Socialist, Prohibition, Progressive, Commonwealth and Communist.

FIRE FLAMES

By One of The Boys

The firemen's "quarters" were filled with firemen several visitors and cigar smoke followed the passing around of smokes by Jim Heasley Jr., in celebration of his recent wedding. The smoke was so dense Louie Karger was unable to see several "misfits" and improper regalia, so he was himself fined for neglect of duty.

The Chief in ordinary times uses a small gavel to control the meetings, but he has in reserve one large enough to repel a riot if needed. When Lee Hibbs and Karger fell into one of their famous discussions, it was noticed that Chief Richards laid aside the small gavel for the thing that looked like a war club.

Steve Patsel acting as the "feeder," spread the large table with some of the famous ravigolas from the Patsel household.

The burning of weeds by residents is being carefully superintended by Fire Chief Richards, who goes about the city daily at the request of those who ask for permission to burn weeds from their lots. Permission to do this burning will not be granted until Chief Richards investigates to learn if the burning can be done with safety. Let's keep 'em down.

GIVES PARTY FOR 20 CAMP FIRE GIRLS

Mrs. A. C. Young of 431 Ramona Ave. gave a grand party for twenty Camp Fire Girls in her pretty garden Monday night. The artistic background, cosy as a living-room, was lighted up with Jack 'o Lanterns, and furnished with swings. The girls prepared their supper on the grill.

Mrs. Edward Roach and Miss Betty Newton joined the girls, Mrs. Roach demonstrating the four different types of fires.

An election of officers was held. Sixteen members of the Nissaki group and one guest, Janet Lewis, from the other group, besides the guardians, made up the party.

VETERANS ORGANIZE FOR EMERGENCY

Dan Lewis was sworn in as chairman of the disaster mobilization committee at the meeting of the local Veterans of Foreign Wars post Monday evening. It was decided to hold only one meeting a month during July and August, the date to be the second Monday each month.

Voorhis Bill Held Menace To Local Taxpayers

The bill of Congressman Jerry Voorhis calculated to correct inequalities inflicted on Los Angeles county by non-resident relief cases has been unmercifully flayed by County Counsel O'Connor who predicts it would bring a greater number of indigents than ever to California and particularly to this area.

In an analysis of the Voorhis bill prepared for the county supervisors by the counsel's office it is predicted the bill would increase old-age cases, boost costs of schools and government, flood the labor market and decrease wages, besides strengthening Federal domination of local affairs.

This county is shown to have 40 per cent of the State indigent problem, caring for 1700 families, or 4000 individuals. These constitute roughly 8 per cent of the county welfare load, exclusive of institutions.

A. L. A. Activities

HIGHLIGHTS of our meeting Thursday evening was a talk on Congress—its origin. The constitution was explained in such an interesting manner, we seemed to have a different idea of "We The People" when Mrs. Jessica Wright completed her talk. Americanism Chairman Augusta Coats thanked her, and the unit gave her a vote of thanks also.

A Fidac program was presented by Bertha Irvine, "Paris the Beautiful." This will be the theme for entertainment when the Legionnaires and their families hold a joint meeting June 23 in the Dug-Out. An Apache dance will lend a real Parisian air as presented by Miss Nancy Welsh and Harry Lovejoy, children of Legionnaires.

The year for the present officers is almost finished, but to be fair to those following a copy of the yearly report to Department should be turned over to insure a smooth start. Make a special effort to do this.

We are happy to receive back into our membership roll Mrs. Helene Smith and her daughter Beverly. Wilshire Unit is sorry to lose them and we are glad to get them.

Sylvia Quittner has been ill, according to her husband Joe, who says she has lost her voice, and he hasn't been acting too concerned about it either.

—Helen Lovejoy.

Citizens Reminded Fireworks Not Allowed Here

Explosion of occasional firecrackers by impatient children this week caused Fire Chief Richards to remind local citizens that the sale or discharge of fireworks is absolutely prohibited in Sierra Madre by a city ordinance and if any are found, they will be confiscated. Owners will be liable to arrest and punishment—either now or on July 4th. A special request is made to parents to cooperate with city officials in discouraging the purchase of fireworks from nearby localities for use here.

Outstanding Table Arrangement And Decoration Feature Birthday Party Of Women's Society

Poetic expression in table decoration, music, and poetry reached its zenith when the Women's Society of the Congregation Church met in the social hall for a final get-together before the summer vacation.

Taking their theme from the months of the year, each of 12 ingeniously arranged birthday tables were presided over by two hostesses. The January table of glistening snowballs was topped off with scarlet and green decorations. December featured the Nativity, symbolizing the true Christmas. Mrs. John Spoelstra and Mrs. Al Miller were table and birthday cake hostesses at the January table, assisted by Dr. A. Brady and others and seating those who were born in the first month of the year.

Dainty pink valentines, colonial nosegays, and a centerpiece of Martha Washingtons, delphiniums, and Baby Breath embellished the table decorated by Miss Ruth Miles for February, of which Mrs. N. W. Tarr was cake hostess. March, vivid in greenery, was presided over by Mrs. Thomas Schwartz, Dr. Mary Noble and Mrs. Jim Heasley. April, sounding its exquisite note of Easter with lilies and white candles, had Mrs. E. E. Bacon as table hostess, and Mrs. R. J. Lord as cake hostess.

May adhered to the sign of the zodiac and carried a unique decorative scheme with Taurus, the bull, predominating over a yellow bouquet. The dishes copied after the set designed by Sidney Waugh, show a circle of the 12 astrological signs around the border of each piece. Mrs. Nestor Young, Mrs. H. B. Ayers, and Miss Mary Davis were responsible for this work. Mrs. Young and Mrs. Ayers being the two hostesses.

The wedding month of June had Mrs. F. H. Hartman and Mrs. M. R. McBurney as table and cake hostesses. July was gay with red, white and blue and had Mrs. L. M. Rice at its head, and Mrs. Franklin Swift as the cake hostess. August, equally attractive had Mrs. W. J. Miller as table hostess. Mrs. W. J. Miller and Mrs. W. J. Miller presented a pastoral idyll of gamboling lambs and feathery foliage. Mrs. Harry Bacon and Mrs. Carl Greese were table and cake hostesses. October, month in which America was discovered, was represented by three ships crossing a sea of blue and

Public Will See How Easily A Modern Home Can Be Owned

Building Contractors Association of Southern California through its president, Col. William H. Evans, has invited President Roosevelt, who will be in California at about that time, to officiate the observance of National Housing Day in Southern California, July 12.

That day will be set aside by all contractors for the start in construction of a home by each building contractor, to cost $3500 or less. This will prove to each section, town and city that a home containing standard equipment and enjoying true livability, can be built for those whose incomes are between $1000 and $2000 per year.

DEAN BODE ASSIGNED TO EL SERENO CHURCH

Dean Arnold G. H. Bode experienced a feeling of great pride Saturday afternoon when he addressed the graduates at the commencement held at the Voorhis School for Boys in San Dimas. The dean has been chaplain at the school for the last two months and the last service will be held on Sunday. He is taking charge of a little church in El Sereno for one month.

The Man With the Hoe Says

Plan your garden for the greatest yield. Allot only as much space as needed for each vegetable, and know what you will replant after it is harvested. Make provisions for poles for your pole beans, stakes for tomatoes, chicken wire for cucumbers; it saves space to grow such vegetables in the air.

Lay out the garden in plots, so that you can conveniently work every section without trampling. It will appear better if you trim each plot with flowers, such as ageratum, sweet alyssum or miniature marigolds or zinnias.

The summer influx of visitors has begun, bringing in its wake this week a couple of very welcome guests, the Misses Della and Pearl Neagle of San Francisco, who arrived yesterday to be houseguests of their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Lauren Rhoades of 529 West Highland avenue. They intend to spend six weeks in the southland.

Two jovial Detroit Shriners, Norman Denham and George Paget, were entertained last week by Mrs. Lillian Clark Young of Adams street, as guests to her brother-in-law, William Keut of Detroit, who told them to meet Mrs. Young, with Miss Mildred Cather of the Fox Studio the party danced at the Cocoanut Grove, saw the electrical pageant in the Coliseum and visited the new Chinatown.

Cedric O'Bryan of Cypress Court was host last weekend to his sister and her family, Mrs. R. H. Gadow, and Barbara May and David of Ventura.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Billheimer were hosts recently to Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Moreland of Portland, Ore.

Col. and Mrs. David Reeves of 68 Vista Circle, were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jones of Pacific Palisades at a hiking party on Monday.

Major and Mrs. P. B. Linville of Oakdale Drive gave a foursome on Monday evening in their Canyon home.

The Misses Margaret and Burnaby Bode of 265 North Mt. Trail avenue visited the Los Angeles Museum last week to see the exhibit of paintings by artists west of the Mississippi. They thought it was exceptionally fine.

Mrs. J. Borradaile of East

Grand View avenue was among the spectators at the commencement held at the Mayfield School in Pasadena Tuesday afternoon to witness the graduation of her friend, Miss Josephine Clark, who was one of five graduates.

Mrs. L. M. Evans of the Belle Vue Court and her friends, Captain and Mrs. Ed Jones of San Pedro, enjoyed luncheon in the delightful surroundings of the little theatre at Padua Hills last week, later seeing the latest Mexican play, "Calle de Beso."

Mrs. M. E. Churchill of 330 West Grand View avenue entertained on Sunday, her father O. J. Henry, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Nearing of Garden Grove. Mr. Henry is spending a week or two with his daughter.

An unusual summer of rest and recreation is ahead for Mrs. Edward A. Davey and three children, Mary Jane, Donald and Dick of 82 Olivera Place, who leave tomorrow for Keddies-on-Spanish Creek, in the marvelous Feather River country. Mr. Davey is in charge of the Boy Scout Camp of the Piedmont Council, located at Keddies, for the summer.

Mrs. Mattie Peters of 237 Vista Circle was hostess on Sunday to her daughter, Mrs. Etta Leach of Whittier and two granddaughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Faron Jay Moss of 214 Olivera Place were hosts over the weekend to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Carlson of San Francisco. Mr. Carlson is former personnel director of Farm Credit Bureau and is attending the Institute of Government at USC this week and was accompanied Monday by Mr. Moss.

Miss Caroline Nelson and her sister, Miss Lavinia Nelson of 231 West Grand View avenue, were guests at the home of Dr. T. Rew at her Silver Lake home in Hollywood, last week; the former being there to address the class of Dr. Rew, who is a professor at the University of Southern California.

Michael Casey of Limerick, Ireland, who came to California four years ago to attend St. Patrick's Seminary in Menlo Park, to study for the priesthood, is now a houseguest of Mrs. Clara Rood Akley of 89 East Alegria avenue for a couple of months.

Mrs. Dorothy Hawley of New York and Philadelphia has arrived to spend several months in California visiting her parents, Miss Pauline Bell, who spent the winter in Sierra Madre and Pasadena, has returned to her home in Cedar Rapids, Ia. Miss Bell is the niece of Dr. L. L. Krebs, 333 Sturtevant Drive.

Mrs. E. E. Bacon, 506 West Grand View avenue, has returned from Wilmington where she spent a few days visiting her nephew, E. S. Myer and family. Long Beach will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McQuestion, of Brookside Lane, for the next few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Hawhurst, 155 Bonita avenue, have gone on a trailer trip through Yosemite and the Big Trees country.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Earl Gossard and Miss Edna Green attended the American Medical Association convention held at San Francisco Thursday.

After an absence of several months, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Houck, former Canyon Park residents, have returned to Sierra Madre from Akron, O., and are living at Audubon Park, 476 Sturtevant Drive.

Saturday was moving day for the E. W. Andersons, who changed their residence from 702 Manzanita avenue to 506 West Grand View avenue.

Attending the courtesy night of Covina Eastern Star June 9 were Mrs. Frances Brain, worthy matron, and Miss Muriel Tarr, associate matron of the Sierra Madre Eastern Star.

Mary Lou Lovejoy spent the weekend in Temple City with Evelyn Hamilton, attending a show in Alhambra.

The Pat Westons, former residents, were in town Saturday with Joan and Suzanne. They were happy to learn their mountain cabin is intact.

Mrs. J. B. Katho Sr., 68 West Grand View avenue, has had a lawn put in to glorify her back yard patio. It promises to be one more thing of beauty. This new home built on the hillside has a view of the valley that is inspiring from an unique back porch designed by Mrs. Katho.

James Kettleson of Portland, Ore., is a summer visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pendergast.

Mrs. Dora Cooper of Los Angeles was the house guest, Mrs. Bertha Shapiro of 373 West Montecito avenue for a few days. In honor of her guest, Mrs. Shapiro entertained at a luncheon June 8th.

Sister Mary Euphemia, of Milwaukee, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Arend of Los Angeles were Sunday visitors at the home of Mayor and Mrs. W. J. Schiltz. Sister Euphemia, a member of the Order of St. Francis, teaches music in the parochial schools in Milwaukee and has been spending some time with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arend, as Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Barker and Mrs. Myrtle Walker of Long Beach called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Trimbel, 658 Mari-posa avenue, Saturday.

Bunting, parades, fezzes and sightseeing trips may be vivid memories in the minds of the late visiting hordes of Shriners and their ladies but to C. H. Sandage of 1680 W. Highland Ave., who wore a police badge and worked with the Temple Guards, these things meant a lot of work, care, and vigilance.

Miss Anna Schumann of 50 Morton Ave. is expected home today from her seven-week visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jose Drudis at their Paso Robles almond ranch.

Miss Eunice Du Vall has finished her term of teaching at Whittier and is spending several weeks of her vacation with her aunt, Mrs. W. M. Barker of 281 Santa Anita Court.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Smurda of 650 N. Montecito Ave. and son Joseph, who was graduated from the St. Rita's school Thursday, will leave Saturday for their Brentwood home where they will spend the summer months.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Hannaford attended a homecoming affair at Ventura on Wednesday. The meeting was arranged by the ladies of the Congregational church, of which Mr. Hannaford was once the pastor.

The mail brought an invitation to Dean Arnold Bode the other day, that recalled pleasant memories of his days as Rector of

Big Staff At Bethany's Bible School

Vacation Classes Will Continue From June 20 Until July 15

The summer Bible school of Bethany church will open June 20 and continue through July 15, with daily classes from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m.

An innovation in the Bible school curriculum this year is the introduction of a series of books presenting Bible lessons through visual aids such as chalk talks. The daily music period will feature favorite church hymns and choruses adapted to children. Courses will be provided for all grades through Junior High school and boys and girls from nearby communities are welcome.

Rev. S. R. Sheriff, Bethany's pastor, heads the staff of competent instructors which includes Miss Ruth Needham, superintendent; Mrs. Wayne Perry and Mrs. Frank Butler, pre-school group; Mrs. J. A. Reed, kindergarten and first; Miss Jean Weekes, second grade; Miss Mary Sheriff, third grade; Mrs. Robert Jensen, fourth grade; Miss Virginia Sackett, fifth grade; Miss Kathleen Mote, sixth grade; Mrs. E. Strake, seventh grade; Miss Katherine Needham, junior high (younger group); Rev. S. R. Sheriff, junior high (older group); Miss Mary Jo Needham, office, and Mrs. J. Fergus, Mrs. William Edwards, Miss Betty Penn and Miss Edith Richter, helpers.

Mrs. Helen Frazee-Bower and Miss Margaret Turnbull, special guest speakers, especially qualified to address children, have been secured for the school. Registration for the school has now gone over the hundred mark. To present the whole Bible, through a period of years, is the purpose of the school. Pupils from three years of age and up are welcome.

St. James' Church in South Pasadena seven years ago. It requested his presence at the commencement of his former choir boys at the South Pasadena High on Thursday afternoon.

J. Milton Steinberger, E. E. Fairbanks, and Tom Miller, local Shriners, have settled down since they attended the Shrine convention and the happy visitors have gone back home.

Mrs. Eva D. Moore returned Tuesday morning from her lengthy trip to New England, the Nation's capital, Cincinnati and other eastern and midwest cities.

Martha Tiller was a guest at a recent dinner party given at Padua Hills by Clinton Kelly of San Marino.

The H. C. Reavis family of 551 Sturtevant Road is entertaining Mrs. Reavis' father and sister and her husband this weekend. H. A. Wooding and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson of Bakersfield, who came down to attend the graduation exercises of the Pasadena Jr. High at the Rose Bowl, from which Clay Reavis Jr., is being graduated.

Flag Day Observed By Kiwanis Club

Flag Day was observed at the Kiwanis Club meeting Tuesday noon. Members related experiences at home and abroad and pointed out the spirit the flag played. Dr. Raymond Simpson, program chairman, told what the flag means to the club and how the Kiwanis ideals are built around those for which the flag stands.

A report on the community fund drive for the youth organizations was given and showed $364 received which includes 94 subscriptions. Totals on the competing teams were not available, but it was thought the West team was leading the East team by a small margin.

Rainfall At Nearby Mountain Camp Now Over 67 Inches

While Sierra Madre had most unseasonable misty showers several days last week, they really had rain back in the mountains, according to "Joe" Clark, former manager of the Half-Way House on Sturtevant Trail, and now of the county forest service, who makes his headquarters at Hoojee's camp. Up to noon Saturday the an inch, he reports, bringing the year's total to more than 67 inches.

The March storm changed the appearance of a lot of the back country, according to Mr. Clark. The great volume of water that poured down the steep slopes cut the stream beds to three and four times their original width, often changing the old course. It is all quite different, but still beautiful, and wildflowers unknown at this time to the lowland, are blooming in many places.

But marsh water on banks of the widened streams and in the silty bottoms of the now forsaken streambeds are breeding millions of mosquitoes.

In Sierra Madre the mist added .18 inches to the rainfall record, bringing the total to 34.33 inches. Total for the same period in 1937 was 34 inches.

WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

THAT bevy of friendly, gracious, daintily attired women who visited the Sierra Madre Woman's Club on Wednesday, Reciprocity Day, and exchanged greetings with the neighbors of Wistaria Town, have left. But the perfume of new and old friendships lingers in the atmosphere. It was a day the members will long remember. Mrs. Al Myers, with her usual poise, attended to every little detail, which made for a smooth and delightful afternoon.

Most all of the invited guests accepted their invitations and many familiar faces were noted. The District Federation sent Mrs. E. M. Kromer, district treasurer, besides representatives of all the outstanding clubs in Southern California.

The program was given in the lovely green outdoor parlor. Mrs. Nina Norris and her two daughters, Kathleen and Peggy, played on the accordion, cello and harp. Mrs. Norris also gave some of her whistling solos. Mrs. Lucia Trent Cheyney read several beautiful poems, including a new one: "Toward the Valley of Light," an exceptional spiritual message.

A collation was served by Mrs. J. H. Robertson, Mary Schwartz, C. H. Sandage, Robert Newberry and M. A. Gopp with Mmes. A. E. Pulling pouring tea, and W. J. Lawless pouring coffee.

Large bouquets of salmon-tinted gladioli and Matilija poppies, contributed their touch to nature's drawing-room.

Clubs that sent out one or more representatives were Altadena, Azusa, Arcadia, Covina, Van Nuys, El Monte, San Gabriel, Pasadena Study Club, Montebello, La Puente Valley, Baldwin Park, Arroyo Vista Welfare Club, Burbank, Rosemead, Wilmar, California History and Landmarks Club, Highland Park, Ebell, Wilshire, Los Angeles Cosmos Club, Whittier, Beverly Hills, Alhambra, Huntington Park, Catholic Woman's Club, Garvey, Michillinda, Monrovia, Shakespear Club of Pasadena, Burbank, Los Angeles District California Federation of Women's Clubs, and California Federation of Women's Clubs.

Largest Audience Hears Last Debate Of Young People

Final debate in the series on controversial questions sponsored by the Young People's Society of the Congregational church drew the largest crowd Sunday night.

The subject selected was: Resolved: "That All the Churches in the United States be United Into One." Due to a mixup in dates, the two young men from Occidental College, who were to participate in the debate, did not appear until very late. However, Raymond Simpson took the affirmative side and Richard Moore upheld the negative side. No decision was made as to the winner but the audience was keenly interested in the points made by both sides.

Carole Coumbe, elected president of the society a week ago, presided.

Two Candidates Out For Justice Of New Township

Two candidates for justice of the peace of Monrovia Township, of which Sierra Madre is now a part, filed nomination petitions this week—Judge John A. H. Sturgeon of Monrovia, and Cecil L. Lacy, well-known Arcadia attorney.

Addition this year of Sierra Madre and Arcadia to the township puts it in the Class A division, and it now includes, besides these cities, Azusa, Glendora, Monrovia, Duarte, Irwindale, Charter Oak and portions of Temple City.

Judge Sturgeon has served three terms as Justice of the township and is president of the San Gabriel Valley Bar Association. His nominating petition contains the names of the mayors of the five incorporated cities within the township.

Mr. Lacy has been a practicing attorney since 1929, prior to which he served for several years as assistant secretary of the State Bar Association, in charge of admissions to the bar from Southern California. He is president of the Arcadia Toastmasters Club, vice-president of the Lion's Club and resides in Arcadia with his wife and two daughters.

Groom Sings As He Greets Bride At This Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Waverly Pratt of Grove street attended the wedding of Mrs. Pratt's nephew, Robert Warren of Los Angeles, at which he was united to Miss Eleanor McCully of Los Angeles, who is a niece of Mrs. H. B. Ayers of West Grand View avenue.

Instead of the traditional routine the groom met the bride as she came down the aisle, from the side, singing "Because" as he faced her.

PLENTY OF STARS AT ARCADIA THEATRE

"Judge Hardy's Children," starring Lewis Stone and Mickey Rooney, and "Cassidy of Bar 20," with William Boyd, will be shown on the Arcadia theatre screen today and Saturday. Agreeable Surprise For Retiring Head Of Wilson PTA

Carefully-laid plans for a surprise party in honor of Mrs. Waverly Pratt, past president of the Woodrow Wilson P.T.A., came to their fruition on Monday when members of her board conveyed her by subterfuge to the home of Mrs. A. Phernembucq of 3450 Yorkshire Blvd., Pasadena, for a pot-luck luncheon. The hostess took her guests out to the patio, ostensibly to see a flower, but instead twenty women greeted her with cries of "Surprise, surprise!"

A parasol was then brought out to (presumably) shield her from the sun. Upon opening it, the honoree was deluged with a veritable shower of exquisite handkerchiefs and cards. These latter endeavored to transmit the admiration and esteem which everyone felt for their president and eath other.

Local ladies who were among those present were Mrs. H. Clay Reavis, Mrs. Art Embree and Mrs. Ben Stinman.

Midsummer Dance Is Arranged By Jr. Woman's Club

A summer dance was planned by the Sierra Madre Woman's Club Juniors at the candlelight installation of new officers held June 9 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Hart, La Habra Heights.

The affair is scheduled for July 23 and will be held at the Woman's clubhouse. The fact that it is the first summer dance staged by the Juniors adds to its interest.

Committee chairmen announced by Mrs. Cant are Evelyn Solury, program; Miss Adele Doty, ways and means; Mrs. Herbert Seifert, social; Mrs. Wm. Schwartz, publicity; Miss Eunice Albrecht, refreshment; Mrs. Juanita Lannan, house committee, and Miss Elizabeth Pridham, philanthropy.

WINNIPEG RESIDENTS MEET AT LUNCHEON

At a luncheon given June 15 at the home of Mrs. William Montgomery, Arcadia, two residents of Winnipeg, Canada, met for the first time. Mrs. Benjamin Bailey, sister of Mrs. Montgomery, was the guest of honor. She and her husband, Dr. Bailey, attended the recent Shriners convention in Los Angeles. The other Canadian was Miss Mary Anderson, a cousin of Mrs. John McAndrew of this city, who was also present at the luncheon. Other Sierra Madre guests were Mrs. Edward De Long and Mrs. Mary Anderson.

SEILINGS WILL RESUME OUTDOOR CONCERTS

The second annual series of outdoor concerts given by Prof. and Mrs. Oskar Seiling, 500 Adams Street, in their garden theater, will begin July 17.

What A Girl Sees Ramblin' 'Round

I'm told the beautiful jacaranda trees now in full bloom in many parts of the city are later than usual, for some reason, though lovely, never. Observing homeowners tell us many of the younger ones are blooming for the first time this year. Greatest groups appear along North Mountain Trail, West Alegria, West Montecito and South Hermosa. . . . Some of the gorgeous corals are also at their best just now.

During the recent Wistaria Vine dinner of the Japan-American society a lot of us were reminded by F. D. R. Moore—who can speak Japanese, by the way—that Sierra Madre is a city of superlatives.

Acting as chairman of the evening, Mr. Moore, past president of the society, proved himself a delightful raconteur and kept the affair moving along brightly with his stories and allusions. He told the 150 diners that he had resided in Sierra Madre for 29 years and that this is a community of superlatives because "we have the largest wistaria vine, palm nursery, camellias and gardenia-bush" in the country. The gardenia-bush he unblushingly pointed out reposed in his own garden.

"While we have not lived in Sierra Madre nearly so long as Mr. Moore, residing here only six months, my wife and I have learned to love it just as much," said Chobun Okamoto when he introduced his party of guests, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cheyney, Mr. and Mrs. Perley Poore Sheehan, Mrs. R. A. Pratt, and William R. Malone, president of the Postal Union Life Insurance Co., and Mrs. Malone, and son.

Near Record Crowd At Firemen's Dance; Sees Big Apple

A near record crowd turned out for the Volunteer Firemen's dance and card party at the Woman's clubhouse Saturday night.

Firemen and their wives from all parts of the valley were on hand to dance to the music of Bud Ross and his Syncopators from Alhambra, Monrovia, Pasadena, Glendora and San Fernando were among towns well represented.

Leis of assorted colors were distributed as favors. During intermission Bob Ward, conductor of local dancing classes, gave a demonstration of the "Big Apple."

Everyone who attended seemed to have a lot of fun. One of the features of the dance was the performance of Shorty Steinberger and Joe Swanson taking a slice of the "Big Apple." Shorty was expert at the falling leaf episode of the number and the pair kept the dancers in an uproar.

Cards were played at five tables, with Mrs. W. D. Richards, Robert Smith and R. W. Creug winning the bridge prizes.

LATEST NEWCOMERS ARE WELCOMED

Sierra Madre welcomed the following newcomers during the week: Helene M. Smith, 629 Alta Vista Drive; Mrs. Evelyn E. Braden, 746 Woodland Drive; John E. Olivit, 63 North Mt. Trail; Mrs. N. Newton, 258 West Highland avenue; Mrs. Paul Rathbun, 93 East Laurel avenue; Richard Small, 575 Brookside Lane; Mrs. George Huckel, 715 Woodland Drive; Wesley L. Crawford, 675 Brookside Lane.

Mrs. Alyce Anderson has moved to 506 West Grand View avenue, and Mrs. Dora Levine to 161 North Lima street.

COPENHAVER READY TO GO FISHING

His many friends have been delighted to see R. C. Copenhaver not only able to be about again during the last few days, but looking quite chipper. In fact he has recovered to the point where he has been quizzing local fishermen on the best spots this year and gathered up road maps at several service stations, evidently with the idea of planning his annual summer jaunt into the High Sierra country.

HARMONICA BAND TO PLAY FOR VETERANS

A meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars to be held Monday evening, June 27th, at the Parkhouse, will be open to the public. Jack Shearer and his harmonica band will be there and refreshments will be served.

Women's Society To Hear Of Character Building Work

The Women's Society of the Congregational Church will have a Missionary Tea at the home of Mrs. Arthur O. Pritchard, 139 W. Orange Grove Ave. on Tuesday, June 21, at 2 p. m.

Character building organizations for girls and young women is the topic of the program of which Mrs. B. L. Hinkley is chairman. Mrs. Florence Davies, business and industrial girls' secretary of the Pasadena Y. W. C. A., will speak of the work which is being done by the organization she represents. Miss Eva Hancock, executive secretary of the Pasadena Campfire Council, will tell of campfire activities. Devotions will be conducted by Mrs. Bovard. A trio will be given by Misses Harriett Bacon, Cynthia Hull, and Carol Coumbe.

Refreshments are being arranged by Miss Mae Fuller and her committee. An invitation is extended to all ladies of the community.

EPISCOPALIANS WILL HAVE FAMILY PICNIC

The Church of Ascension will hold a family picnic at Covina Park on Sunday, June 26. Those participating are asked to gather at the church promptly at 9 o'clock. Everyone will take their own picnic lunch. All Sierra Madre Episcopals are invited to attend.

RITZ BROTHERS AT THE LYRIC THEATRE

The Ritz Brothers come to the Lyric Theatre in Monrovia today and Saturday, June 17 and 18, in "Kentucky Moonshine," with "Coconut Grove" starring Fred MacMurray and Harriett Hillard as the second feature.

"Savings Made
Owning a Home
Easy for Us"

A TRUE STORY

In this happy husband's actual words . . . "For the past ten years I've saved part of my pay check. Sometimes it wasn't very much. But it was always something . . . I never missed a month. These savings plus dividends are now enough to build the home I've always wanted."

"I'm happy about it, and I guess a little proud, too. So is the wife. It was her idea, really, that I start an account."

It has been said, "A man is worth only what he can save." Surely, those of you who dream of a future filled with happiness are anxious for dreams to come true. They can, and soon, too, if you save here now . . . and earn a really worthwhile return.

Increased His Business By News Ads

"You will probably be interested to know that consistent advertising of our greasing service in the columns of The Sierra Madre News during recent weeks has increased this feature of our business more than 100 per cent and very greatly helped our general business," said a letter from J. Milton Steirger of the Standard Service Station in which was enclosed a remittance for his May advertising.

Magic Mist

AN INSECT KILLER (Inflammable)

Magic Mist is a perfumed insecticide which will kill any insect with which it comes in contact — either directly or through the mist. It will kill all the flies in the house while you are looking for your sweater. A perfect moth destroyer. Will not stain or damage your furniture nor daintiest silk. Not harmful to man or beast. Can also be used on stock and poultry. Black Widow spiders, termites, and sheep ticks let loose and fall off. Magic Mist is a glass cleaner, too.

News Want Ads Pay

Early Buyers Answered His Want Ad

"My faith in the efficacy of want ads in the NEWS has been almost unbounded for years—they always brought results for me, but I have greater faith in them now than ever." M. D. Welsher of 517 West Highland avenue said when he dropped into the NEWS office Friday afternoon. "The articles I advertised for sale in today's issue brought four people to our door before 9 o'clock in the morning and I could have sold them a dozen times before noon," he continued.

WANT ADS Classified Rates And Instructions

Ten cents per line for first insertion; 7 cents per line for subsequent insertions. Count five words to the line. Two initials count as one word. The minimum charge is 25 cents. In order to avoid expense of bookkeeping and collecting it is desirable that all classified advertisements be paid in advance, unless you have ledger account with THE NEWS. Classified Ads received after 5 p.m. Wednesday may be run under heading "Too Late to Classify."

Near Record Crowd At Firemen's Dance; Sees Big Apple

A near record crowd turned out for the Volunteer Firemen's dance and card party at the Woman's clubhouse Saturday night.

Firemen and their wives from all parts of the valley were on hand to dance to the music of Bud Ross and his Syncopators from Alhambra. Monrovia, Pasadena, Glendora and San Fernando were among towns well represented.

Leis of assorted colors were distributed as favors. During intermission Bob Ward, conductor of local dancing classes, gave a demonstration of the "Big Apple."

Everyone who attended seemed to have a lot of fun. One of the features of the dance was the performance of Shorty Steinberger and Joe Swanson taking a slice of the "Big Apple." Shorty was expert at the falling leaf episode of the number and the pair kept the dancers in an uproar.

Cards were played at five tables, with Mrs. W. D. Richards, Robert Smith and R. W. Creug winning the bridge prizes.

★ The convenience and cleanliness of the new gas broilers are really amazing. The finer flavor of broiled foods is now attained with as much ease and speed as bringing water to a boil. ★ There is no smoke to get in the eyes or to fill the kitchen.
In these new broilers, which swing out or slide out on roller bearings, fats are drained away from the heat zone. This aids in avoiding smoke.
Furthermore, to be absolutely smokeless, broiling requires the type of heat which will do away with the inevitable particles of spattering grease.

Gas alone, among automatic fuels, gives the necessary flame heat to consume these completely. Remember this when you think of clean cooking. For cleanliness, cook with gas. See the new ranges at dealers' or at the gas company showrooms.
Ask about the very liberal terms.
